Top US, Israeli Military Chiefs Meet as Israel Presses for New Iran Strikes

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 18.11.2026
Prof. Kobi Michael: The U.S. carrier deployments are a sign that the war with Iran could again escalate.

The military meetings were intended to ensure that U.S. and Israeli forces were prepared for contingencies, while also potentially sending a deterrent message to Tehran.

Israel might have to act alone if the Trump administration decided against joining another confrontation.

Published in Alhurra, November 18, 2026.

*The opinions expressed in Misgav publications are the authors' alone.

