

Israel Moving to Replace U.S. Aid with 'Win-Win' Investment Model

written by Dr. Raphael BenLevi | 05.05.2025

Dr. Raphael BenLevi: Since the 1970s, many Israeli territorial concessions were indirectly facilitated by aid packages — aid that was meant to 'sweeten' politically risky moves. We called it 'land for peace,' but it was often 'land for aid.'

We became addicted to Washington's credits. Then came the war on October 7, and suddenly we needed ammunition we couldn't manufacture fast enough at home.
