

“Issues Not Settled At All”

written by Dr. Raphael BenLevi | 18.06.2026

Dr. Raphael BenLevi expresses skepticism regarding the Iran peace deal, arguing that Vice President Vance’s trip to Geneva for a signing ceremony provides unnecessary legitimacy to Iranian officials.

He emphasizes that the current memorandum is only a preliminary phase focused on energy flow and fund releases, while many critical long-term issues remain unsettled and unclear.

The full interview took place on Newsmax on June 18, 2026.
