Shared Battles: India and Israel Against Terror

written by Joseph Rozen | 09.07.2025

Joseph Rozen: India launched targeted airstrikes in response to a terror attack linked to the Pakistani army that killed 26 Indian citizens. The strikes avoided Pakistani military sites to send a de-escalation message. The video draws a parallel between India and Israel in their fight against terrorism and calls for Israeli support of India — just as India supported Israel during the war in Gaza.

Israel Must Keep the Military Option on the Table

written by Dr. Raphael BenLevi | 09.07.2025

Dr. Raphael Ben Levi: There is no nuclear deal that can satisfy both the Trump administration and the Iranian regime. Iran remains the greatest strategic threat to Israel as it continues to advance its nuclear capabilities. While President Trump prefers a diplomatic resolution, Iran is likely to stall negotiations to ease international pressure without making real concessions. Therefore, Israel must maintain a credible military threat, which is the only way to keep the issue a priority on the global agenda. If talks collapse, a military strike — ideally with U.S. backing — will be the only effective way to stop Iran’s pursuit of a nuclear weapon.
