

India adopts Israeli model in fight against cross-border terror

written by Joseph Rozen | 18.05.2025

Joseph Rozen: The relationship between Israel and India is anchored in a robust and resilient strategic partnership. India supported Israel's war against terrorism following the October 7 attacks and supplied arms despite international criticism. Therefore, it was natural for Israel to stand in support of India's right to self-defense in its fight against terrorism.

This alignment is far from new, citing Israeli assistance to India during India-Pakistan conflicts in 1965, 1971, and most notably during the 1999 Kargil War.

Trump's Middle East tour leaves Israel in 'confusion'

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 18.05.2025

Prof. Kobi Michael: However, Mr Trump's trip leaves a confused picture behind in Israel. There is a sort of confusion because on the one hand, politicians in Israel feel that they were thrown aside, but on the other hand, there is no doubt that some things that have been said or done by Mr Trump are deeply and well co-ordinated with Israel.

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 18.05.2025

Prof. Kobi Michael: If the military pressure that Israel now increases in the Gaza Strip will bring Hamas to comply to Whitcoff's proposal, then Israel will stop the military pressure. If not, and Israel is not intends to wait too long for that, it is a matter of days, Israel will intensify the military operation until the full occupation of the Gaza Strip in order to assure... ## Increased Israel-Greek defense ties opening options for Israeli firms

written by Lahav Harkov | 18.05.2025

Lahav Harkov: Israel and Greece have had especially close ties for the past decade, but ties have only improved as Israel's relations with Turkey have been on the rocks. # Israel Moving to Replace U.S. Aid with 'Win-Win' Investment Model written by Dr. Raphael BenLevi | 18.05.2025

Dr. Raphael BenLevi: Since the 1970s, many Israeli territorial concessions were indirectly facilitated by aid packages — aid that was meant to 'sweeten' politically risky moves. We called it 'land for peace,' but it was often 'land for aid.'

We became addicted to Washington's credits. Then came the war on October 7, and suddenly we needed ammunition we couldn't manufacture fast enough at home.

The Iranian Strategy in the Nuclear Talks and the Options Facing Israel

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 18.05.2025

Meir Ben Shabbat: Any agreement must include the following components — elimination of enriched uranium stockpiles and destruction of Iran's centrifuges and conversion and enrichment facilities. In the context of weapon systems, Iran must cease all planning and development activities related to the weapons system [nuclear warheads], fully expose past activities, and dismantle research centers engaged in warhead technologies, which operate under academic and civilian cover.

Iran must stop its ballistic missile program, intended for nuclear warheads.

No safe place left in Gaza as Israel's 'humanitarian zones' shrink

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 18.05.2025

Prof. Kobi Michael: Israel's latest measures are aimed at pressuring Hamas — not to reduce the size of the Gaza Strip for the sake of annexation or something like that.

Still, it was likely that Israel would maintain control of buffer zones and seized territory indefinitely, or at least until Hamas' rule in Gaza is brought to an end, with a new system of authority ushered in.

We are still in a war against Hamas. And this is part of the war.

No safe place left in Gaza as Israel's 'humanitarian zones' shrink.

Turkey's expansionist Middle East aspirations don't bother the Trump administration

written by Noa Lazimi | 18.05.2025

Noa Lazimi: Israel's efforts to protect its border with Syria are motivated by legitimate security needs, not expansionism.

It is a vital key interest for Israel to ensure that southern Syria remains demilitarized, so the Golan and Galilee aren't endangered. And by having operational freedom over Syrian airspace, Israel can prevent weapons from falling into the wrong hands and thwart attempts by pro-Turkish militia groups from attacking Israel's border,
