

Recommendations for Advancing the Abraham Accords post-October 7

written by Asher Fredman | 03.04.2024

Asher Fredman presents recommendations for advancing the Abraham Accords and regional peace post-October 7, in a special April 2, 2024 session of the Knesset Abraham Accords Caucus.

These recommendations include:

1. Advance multilateral frameworks and initiatives for cooperation.
2. Encourage the active involvement and commitment of third party allies.
3. Counter discourses of extremism, including that promoted by Qatar, while promoting tolerance.
4. Ensure that Sudan remains within the circle of peace & outside the Iranian orbit.
5. Show determination in standing-up to Iranian-backed terror.

From ‘bear hug’ to barbs, how the U.S. and Israel differ on taking Rafah written by Brig. Gen. (res.) Yossi Kuperwasser | 03.04.2024

Brig. General (Ret.) Yossi Kuperwasser: Israel does not intend to hurt anyone in Gaza, we are doing our utmost to provide humanitarian aid, but we also understand that Hamas uses its civilians as human shields and as tokens to put pressure on the U.S. administration.

Is UNRWA a threat to Palestinians or a lifeline?

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 03.04.2024

Prof. Kobi Michael: Since Oct. 7 there is a very broad consensus now on the Israeli side that UNRWA must be dismantled. The idea that a U.N. agency is advocating for the right of return, which means the destruction of a state which is a member of the U.N., is not less than a paradox, it is just ridiculous.

The IDF prepares itself for a ground operation in Rafah

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 03.04.2024

Following reports the IDF expects 6-8 more weeks of full scale war Prof. Kobi Michael offers perspective on the IDF's advancements in the Gaza Strip: The IDF prepares itself for a ground operation in Rafah. i believe that at the end of the day the war in Gaza will not be ended without tackling the issue of Rafah, be it by a military operation or by self dismantling of Hamas. We can dismantle the last Hamas brigade in Rafah without occupying entire Rafah exactly as we did in Khan Yunis.

The interview was on the I24 television channel, February 20, 2024.

US plan divorced from Israeli reality

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 03.04.2024

The war in the Gaza Strip has entered a complicated stage in which the decision makers in Israel will have to decide whether to operate in Rafah, how to act in order to advance a deal for the hostages held by Hamas, and how to deal with the pressure from the US to reach a settlement leading to the creation of a Palestinian state. Meanwhile, the tension on Israel's northern border is rising.

Former National Security Council head Meir-Ben-Shabbat says Israel must press ahead with achieving its war aims despite US concerns.
