The Prospects for a US-Saudi-Israel deal

written by Asher Fredman | 25.05.2024
Asher Fredman on the Prospects for a US-Saudi-Israel deal: President Biden would like a grand deal whereby Israel ends the war in Gaza, leaves Hamas in power and recognizes a pathway to a Palestinian state, Hamas releases some of the hostages, Saudi Arabia normalizes ties with Israel, and Biden gets a diplomatic win, quiet and lower gas prices before the elections. A true bilateral US-Saudi defense pact, without Israel, is unlikely.

The United States cannot stand idly

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 25.05.2024
Arsen Ostrovsky: United States cannot stand idly by and Congress should unleash a hailstorm of sanctions aThegainst prosecutor Khan and the ICC for this egregious and unforgivable action.
The P.A. must also be made to understand that they cannot continue to engage in this relentless lawfare against Israel, whether at the ICC or the International Court of Justice, without consequences.

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 25.05.2024
Arsen Ostrovsky: Another egregious display in the subversion of the law & unconscionable mockery of the very int'l legal framework, where South Africa is effectively acting as chief legal counsel for Hamas.

During an interview on i24 NEWS about the ICJ hearings against Israel, Misgav Senior Fellow Arsen Ostrovsky underscored the "absurdity and perversion of justice" of these hearings, which are being presided over by a demonstrably biased Judge from Lebanon, and with the involvement now also of Egypt and Turkey.

Ostrovsky called on the Biden Administration to exercise greater pressure on Egypt and Turkey, to refrain from participating in these mendacious and baseless proceedings.

The long road to Iran

written by Col. (res.) Prof. Gabi Siboni | 25.05.2024

Prof. Col. (res.) Gabi Siboni: The large pauses of three to four months were at the behest of the Americans, who constantly pressured Israel not to press Hamas and to reach a deal with the terrorist group. Such pressure reflects Washington's total lack of understanding of the Middle East's brutal realities.

There should be no breaks, no interruptions in the fighting. International misunderstandings of the conflict and the Israeli War Cabinet's mistaken willingness to accede to this pressure have led to a lack of sufficient pressure being applied to Hamas.

US-Israel Tensions

written by Asher Fredman | 25.05.2024

The American opposition to the operation in Rafah, and the decision to stop a shipment of weapons to Israel, is a strategic mistake. It signals to Hamas that there is no reason to move forward with a hostage deal.
