Wasting troops’ hard-fought gains, Israel is taking time it doesn’t have in Gaza

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 10.05.2024
Meir Ben Shabbat: a long fight is unavoidable given the widespread public support Hamas enjoys, and its deep roots among the population.
This is a complex challenge that demands determination and time, and includes significant challenges, like those around providing humanitarian aid to the population. as well as the need to avoid striking the hostages and to take advantage of opportunities to free them.

U.S. decision to halt a shipment of weapons was already a ”troubling signal”

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 10.05.2024
Prof. Kobi Michael: Biden is committed to the security of Israel by supplying Iron Dome and Arrow interceptors … but not sophisticated 2,000-pound bombs that will enable to IDF to attack Hamas.

Israel is allowed to defend itself only from its ground by intercepting rockets and missiles but it is not allowed to defend itself by attacking the source and generators of terrorism in Gaza or other places?

They Wrote A Fictitious Deal

written by Fleur Hassan Nahoum | 10.05.2024

Hamas on Monday announced it had accepted an Egyptian-Qatari ceasefire proposal. Israel said the terms did not meet its demands and launched a military operation in Rafah. Israeli tanks and planes attacked several areas and houses in the town overnight.

An Israeli official said the peace deal Hamas agreed to was a “softened” version of the Egyptian proposal, adding: “This would appear to be a ruse intended to make Israel look like the side refusing a deal.”

Talk’s Julia Hartley-Brewer discusses Israel’s Rafah invasion with Israeli foreign ministry special envoy Fleur Hassan-Nahoum.

The interview took place in TalkTV, May 7, 2024.

The hypocrisy of protesters in the campuses

written by Ruth Wasserman Lande | 10.05.2024

As Israel enters the ground invasion phase of its war with Gaza, public perception of Israel has fallen in the eyes of many, especially younger people who don’t have all the facts. In addition, international bodies like the United Nations and European Union have skewed pro-Arab to the detriment of Israeli lives. Host Steven Shalowitz sits down with Ruth Wasserman Lande, a former Israeli Knesset member, to discuss the hypocrisy of protesters supporting those whose values diametrically oppose they’re own, how Israel values Palestinian lives more than their own government, and Iran’s involvement in the attacks.
