

2025 crystal ball: Israel will knock out Iran but face soaring taxes

written by David M. Weinberg | 05.01.2025

Know Comment: I see knockback against Iran, conflict with Turkey, a deal with Saudi Arabia, and ever-higher taxes.

Incontrovertibly indigenous in Israel

written by David M. Weinberg | 05.01.2025

Palestinianism seeks to strip justice and authenticity from Israel's very existence and to upend its alliance with the democratic world.

The best and brightest: Education is our nation's generational calling

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 05.01.2025

Our enemies, who expected to find a fractured nation and a weakened army, instead encountered heroes of unyielding spirit and strength – young fighters who revealed the true character of this generation: a generation of valor.

Brave soldiers, resilient families, and a believing nation

written by David M. Weinberg | 05.01.2025

Israeli society is heroic, compassionate, determined, and resilient. No despair. No talk of giving up hope, despite the 14 month long war.

Americans weren't interested in prolonging Obama's policies through Harris

written by David M. Weinberg | 05.01.2025

Americans felt the vibe – that American wokeness and moral self-doubt were insidious weaknesses. Therefore, they ruled that the Obama era must finally end.

Alas, the US is “not involved”

written by David M. Weinberg | 05.01.2025

America is not really backstopping Israel with American commitment and power in the confrontation against Iran and its terrorist proxies. Biden's mania for de-escalation is handcuffing Israel and heartening Iran.

Yes to Schadenfreude

written by David M. Weinberg | 05.01.2025

It is perfectly okay to smirk at the humiliation of Hezbollah.

To keep football beautiful, give the Palestinian campaign of hate a 'red card'

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 05.01.2025

In order to indeed keep football as a force for good and politics out of sport, FIFA must once and for all give a 'red card' to Jibril Rajoub's relentless campaign of hate against Israel.
