Ep. 5: What is really happening between Israel and Christians?

written by Misgav Institute | 23.07.2025

In this episode, Lahav and Asher tackle recent headlines involving Israel's relations with the Christian world, both addressing misinformation and exploring ways for Israel to enhance ties with local and international Christian communities. Plus, they delve into the latest Israeli political developments, including how the contentious issue of drafting ultra-Orthodox Israelis is weakening the governing coalition in the Knesset.

This week's guest is Middle East expert Ruth Wasserman Lande, former Deputy Ambassador to Egypt, Advisor to President Shimon Peres, and Member of Knesset. Ruth, currently a Senior Fellow at the Misgav Institute for National Security, discusses the various threats facing Israel on multiple fronts—both those making headlines and those quietly simmering beneath the surface. They explore the evolving realities in Egypt, Syria, and Jordan, examining how Israel can effectively address the growing challenges on its borders to the south, north and east.

👉 Spotify: https://open.spotify.com/episode/6CgxNEMxSgupBZCFzlxVat?si=fPqKusw6QF2aFzykDOgInA&nd=1&dlsi=662e204fcbd64118

👉 Apple: https://podcasts.apple.com/us/podcast/what-is-really-happening-between-israel-and-christians/id1822734204?i=1000718649809