

President Trump's vision of regional integration and expanding the Abraham Accords is "critical" for Israel

written by Asher Fredman | 07.10.2025

Asher Fredman emphasized that President Trump's vision of regional integration and expanding the Abraham Accords is "critical" for Israel, the region, and the Palestinians. He sees this regional cooperation—building an "axis of peace" with moderate Middle Eastern countries—as vital for American security and economic interests.
