

A New Middle East: The Strategic Decline of Iran and its Proxies

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 03.03.2026

Prof. Kobi Michael discusses the strategic weakening of Iran and its proxies, such as Hezbollah and the Houthis, following intensive military strikes on Iranian infrastructure and command centers,. He also highlights the resilience of the Israeli public and anticipates a “new Middle East” where regional shifts, like Qatar’s distancing from Tehran, could lead to the expansion of the Abraham Accords. The full interview took place on ILTV on March 3, 2026. *The opinions expressed in Misgav publications are the authors’ alone.<https://youtu.be/bwSDsMp5bWg>