

Experts Warn of Israeli Intelligence Lapses

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 02.01.2025

Prof. Kobi Michael: It was clear for a long time that with the aid of Iran, Hamas had been collecting intelligence methodically and doing so in a professional manner. This also shows Israel's great permeability; it wasn't too hard of a job.

Hamas did an excellent job using OSINT (open-source intelligence) and gained access to CCTV cameras, which are so prevalent today. Together, this was an endless source of intelligence.

Published in The Media Line and in The Jerusalem Post January 01, 2025.

