Prof. Kobi Michael told The Post that Trump’s re-election might be a great opportunity to bring about peace in the region following the widely acknowledged success of the Abraham Accords from the 45th president’s first term.

We see the impacts of President-elect Trump before he enters the White House. We see what is going there with Hamas, when President Trump said that they will see ‘hell’ if they will not release the hostages — and see what is going there with the Iranians,” said Michael, former head of the Israeli National Security Council’s Palestinian division.

“They are in a huge confusion now, OK? In the worst strategic position in the last four decades. And I think that the vision of President Trump is the vision of weakening Iran.
