

Israel's Multi-Front War and the Iranian Strategic Challenge

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 01.05.2026

Prof. Kobi Michael discusses Israel's strategic capacity to manage a multi-front war and its preference for coordination with the U.S. to address Iran as a global threat.

He expresses skepticism toward diplomatic negotiations due to unbridgeable gaps with the Iranian regime, maintaining that regional stability requires neutralizing Iran's support for its proxies.
