

The Dual Path: Military Action and Diplomatic Realignment

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 24.06.2026

Prof. Kobi Michael analyzes Israel's strategic efforts to dismantle terror infrastructure in both Gaza and South Lebanon, emphasizing that Israel must maintain its security autonomy despite public diplomatic friction with the United States.

He proposes a dual military and diplomatic approach where Israel continues to weaken Hezbollah while working toward an arrangement to eventually transfer control of specific enclaves to the Lebanese army under American supervision.

The full interview took place on ILTV on June 24, 2026.

*The opinions expressed in Misgav publications are the authors' alone.