

The Lebanon Campaign: Military Goals and a New Political Horizon

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 19.03.2026

Prof. Kobi Michael explains that the IDF aims to remove Hezbollah from Southern Lebanon to establish a “political horizon” of mutual recognition and potential peace with the Lebanese government.

He further details the conflict’s transition into an “energy war” against national infrastructure, emphasizing the necessity of American pressure and support to effectively weaken Hezbollah and Iranian influence.

The interview took place on ILTV on March 19, 2026.
