Israel imposed a blockade on Gaza again, but can it last?

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 18.03.2025

Arsen Ostrovsky explaining why Israel's decision to halt aid to Gaza was entirely just and legitimate under international law, and noting that "Churchill and FDR certainly were not expected or required to provide aid to Nazi Germany during World War II, yet what we are seeing is a systematic legal double standard being applied against Israel."

Published in JNS, March 18, 2025.

