

The hypocrisy of protesters in the campuses

written by Ruth Wasserman Lande | 03.05.2024

As Israel enters the ground invasion phase of its war with Gaza, public perception of Israel has fallen in the eyes of many, especially younger people who don't have all the facts. In addition, international bodies like the United Nations and European Union have skewed pro-Arab to the detriment of Israeli lives. Host Steven Shalowitz sits down with Ruth Wasserman Lande, a former Israeli Knesset member, to discuss the hypocrisy of protesters supporting those whose values diametrically oppose they're own, how Israel values Palestinian lives more than their own government, and Iran's involvement in the attacks.

The graphic features a red and purple wavy background. In the top left is the IsraelCast logo, which includes a white circle with orange signal waves and the text 'IsraelCast' above a blue book icon. In the center is a large circular portrait of Ruth Wasserman Lande, a blonde woman with a grey blazer. To the right is a smaller circular portrait of Steven Shalowitz, a man with a beard and glasses. Below the portraits, the text reads 'Featured Guest Ruth Wasserman Lande' and 'Former member of Knesset and founder and co-chair of the Knesset Caucus for the promotion of the Abraham Accords'. In the bottom left, it says 'Episode 182'. In the bottom right, there is the Jewish National Fund USA logo with the tagline 'Your Voice in Israel'.
